For many of our clients looking to take a romantic getaway, or even just a relaxing beach escape with family or friends, one automatically thinks it is necessary to leave the country. We all do! When you think romance and escape, you think the caribbean, or hawaii, but Georgia? Many of us West coasters don't even realize the magical havens that exist on our East coast beaches. But those of you from out that way can attest to this...there are some of the most beautiful islands off the coast of Georgia, Florida, and South Carolina, just waiting for you to visit!

One of our favorites? Sea Island, Georgia. Centered around a stately and grand resort called The Cloister, Sea Island truly is a scene from a Nicolas Sparks novel. It is the true south, with friendly people, a slower paced lifestyle, and pretty amazing barbecue. For accommodations on Sea Island, you can either stay in the main resort itself, or you can stay in one of the beautifully appointed ocean villas, or cottages, that are also on the property; either way, you will have access to the Cloister Beach Club, the world class restaurants, the spa, and the three renowned golf courses, one of which is home to the PGA Tour's McGladrey Classic.

There are also great activities for all ages, including horseback riding, shooting, a kids camp, and fishing, among others. Not to mention for those wedding clients of ours...there is no better setting for southern nuptials or a stateside honeymoon! For more information, contact Life:StyLED to book your getaway, today!
